

Liberty for All

Read

- Check out and read a biography of any of our founding fathers, then write two facts you learned about them.
- Check out and read a book about the declaration of independence, then write a sentence about liberty.
- ★ Check out a book about the Statue of Liberty, and read it with a grown up. Draw a picture of the statue and share with a librarian.

Connect

- Write a diary entry of one of the signers or soldiers who lived and fought for our Nation's independence.
- Check out and read a book on the underground railroad. Write a 3 sentence letter as if you were the one escaping to freedom.
- ★ Using materials found at home, make a liberty crown (it has 7 spikes!) and torch. Take a picture of yourself posing as the Statue of Liberty.

Discover

- Check out a book on Pennsylvania and read about the Liberty Bell. Create your own Liberty bell at the library, or at home with your own materials.
- With help from the Museum of the American Revolution, take a virtual fieldtrip and complete the scavenger hunt that is included. (www.amrevmuseum.org)
- ★ View one of the 18 Library bells in any Chester County library this summer! Which one was your favorite and why?
